Carlo Cracco: Master Chef and Heartthrob - La Cucina Italiana

[https://www.lacucinaitaliana.com/trends/restaurants-and-chefs/carlo-cracco-masterchef]

Carlo Cracco brings his whole personality into the kitchen with him. And that is exactly his goal. Born in the town of Creazzo, near Vicenza, in 1965, he began his career at the age of 21 alongside Gualtiero Marchesi in Milan, in the first Italian restaurant to earn three Michelin stars. Today he's a successful chef and one of the best-known ...

Add the zest of 1 orange, wait a few moments and then pour in the tomato purée. Add a sprig of marjoram, season with salt and cook over low heat for 20 minutes, until the sauce is thick, smooth and has reduced a bit, stirring occasionally with a wooden spoon. Halfway through cooking the tomato sauce, bring a pot full of salted water to a boil.

[https://www.finedininglovers.com/people/carlo-cracco]

He agreed a deal with the owners of the 'temple of Italian gastronomy' Peck to open a restaurant called Peck-Cracco, which was awarded two Michelin stars. Soon the restaurant became known simply as 'Cracco', and it became his culinary home for 17 years before relocating to new premises at the famous Galleria Vittorio in Milan.
